

Recycling & Re-use

insurance solutions for a high risk industry

Comprehensive Insurance Solutions from a company you can trust

Chain Reaction?

Miles Smith have been working with some of the best known companies from all sectors of the Recycling & Re-use industry for over twenty five years. The trust and confidence our clients have derived from working with us has inevitably been reflected in great continuity of business.

We are an independent insurance broker based in the City of London, covering the entire UK, with direct and immediate access into Lloyd's and all the UK's major insurers.

Miles Smith specialise in the provision of specialised Insurance products for certain industries, and such is our unique approach that in a number of cases we are also associate members of a variety of trade bodies representing such industries, as well as being the endorsed broker to the Environmental Services Authority.

We have negotiated with Summit at Lloyd's and Amlin Plc unique Motor Fleet and Liability contracts, resulting in what is now probably the most comprehensive Environmental Recycling & Re-use Insurance scheme available in the United Kingdom.

Summit is the Motor Fleet division of Amlin Plc, a FTSE 250 listed Company. Amlin enjoy a strong balance sheet, thereby attracting a strong financial rating by all the leading agencies.

Amlin is a leading and independent Insurer operating in the London Market and they specialise in providing Insurance cover to commercial enterprises, addressing many of their risk and management needs. Amlin's strength is confirmed by the fact that they also provide reinsurance protection to other major Insurance Companies around the world.

Miles Smith offer the most competitive range of products available in the market and all of our insurers are of the highest quality with many of our schemes and specialised products having been in existence for many years. In a number of cases, these specialised schemes are endorsed by a number of Trade Associations and Affinity Groups.

We have extensive market experience and expertise, and we can offer an Insurance package that would provide a fully comprehensive and highly competitive package to companies engaged in the Environmental Industries. With many years service and experience to the Waste Industries, Miles Smith have built a reputation of which we are justifiably proud.
